

Subscription satellite should be allowed to offer local news and weather and whatever else they want. It is a subscription. Not unlike satellite T.V. which offers local news and weather, we pay for it as consumers and if we didn't want it then we wouldn't pay for it or we could simply change the channel. Why would legislators want to limit this? What purpose does it serve?